LUCKY HOUR VICTOR IN EIGHTH RENEWAL OF POTOMAC HANDICAP AT GRAW

BUNTING, FAVORITE, RUNS SECOND, WITH SOUTHERNCROSS 3D

Whitney Star Outgamed in Stretch in Added Money Feature.

By FRANK HARTIG.

Lucky Hour, brilliant son of the famous Hourless, showed one of the finest efforts of the season to win the eighth renewal of the Potomac Handicap, at 11-6 miles, with $10.000 adjed, at Havre de Grace yesterday. Running in the silks of the Lexington ning in the sliks of the Lexington Stable, Lucky Hour took the lead at the three-quarter pole and was never headed thereafter. The highly-touted Bunting fought through the entire mile and a sixteenth against the speed and willingness of Lucky Hour, but was never able to get on even terms with the Lexington Stable's star. Bunting and Lucky Hour were forced to pack almost the same weight even the law almost the same weight over the long grind and the race to all intents and purposes developed into a duel be-tween these two. surposes developed into a duel be-tween these two. Coupled with Rialto, which finished second, a length back, Blue Peter ran a winning race sil the way and was never hard pressed. Taking the lead at the quarter Penman rated his mount perfectly and though his lead was cut down by five lengths in a half mile, won as he pleased.

Aboard the Greentree Stable's good 3-year-old filly Nedna, in the fourth race, a trip of a mile and seventy yards for 3-year-olds and upwards, Penman scored the second riding double of the Maryland fall season when he brought the filly under the wire an easy winner over a real good field.

Penman allowed Ponce, who was Penman allowed Ponce, who was riding Yankee Star, to cut out the early pace, but once he decided the time was ripe. Nedna merely breezed to the front and stayed there until the finish. Yankee Star didn't have enough left to with-stand Nedna's challenge at the head of the stretch and the filly easily

JOHNSTON WHIPS TILDEN IN 4 SETS IN SECTION EVENT

East-West Net Matches End in Tie as Final Doubles Go Over.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 23 .laying a speedy, dazzling game that fairly swept his opponent off his feet. 'Little Bill" Johnston, California tennis star, defeated William T. Tilden. world's singles champion, at the West Side Tennis Club here this afternoon. 3-3, 4-6, 8-6 and 6-0.

The match between the champion and runner-up in the recent national championships was the feature of the final day's card of the East-West ennis champion hips.

Honors were even with the score at three all in matches at the conclusion of the championships. Starting with the score two to one against them as a result of yesterday's matches, the Eastern team evened the count by taking two out of the three final

Mrs. Molic Mallory, the national woman's champion, defeated Miss Mary K. Browne, California star, 6-3 and 6-3, and Vincent Richards, the young New Yorker, won from Willis Davis, 6-4, 6-3, 7-5.

The doubles match between the Kinsey brothers from California, and Watson Washburn and Richard Norris Williams, which could have de-Watson Washburn and Richard Norris Williams, which could have decided the championship, was called when the score was tied, to permit the Californians to catch a train.

Johnston's defeat of Tilden was not only the big surprise of the afternoon but it was almost a sensation. Tilden was unable to keep up with the pace set by the little Californian and he made only occasional flashes of form. Johnston made his victory most convincing by winning the last set at love in six minutes.
